

Marilyn Zigmund Luke, Vice President, America's Health Insurance Plans

I have over 20 years in the legal and health care sectors, with a firm compliance, regulatory and policy background. Currently, my interests are focused in the areas of privacy, security, cybersecurity, and emergency preparedness. I am accustomed to working with diverse experts across the nation and lead a number of efforts working with public and private sector entities and individuals.