

Jonathan R. Bagnall is the Cybersecurity Global Market Leader for Royal Philips Healthcare. Mr. Bagnall has extensive experience in consulting, designing, and implementing cybersecurity & risk management programs for fortune 500 companies, conducting operational coordination, information sharing, and collaboration among government and the private sector. In his position as Cybersecurity Global Market Leader, he oversees the communications and client-facing support for all products and services, education, global outreach awareness, and partnerships, encompassing critical internal and external stakeholders, clients, industry cybersecurity engagements (RSA, Archimedes, RSNA, HIMSS, HCSS, H-ISAC, NTIA, MITA, and Academy Health), federal government and regulators. He holds a Bachelor of Science and Business Administration, a Masters in Science and Management, and a Ph.D. in Information Technology & Cybersecurity.