

OCHIN Bio: Jennifer Stoll

Full Name: Jennifer Stoll

OCHIN Title: Executive Vice President of External Affairs at OCHIN

Bio:

Jennifer Stoll is the Executive Vice President of External Affairs for OCHIN, a national nonprofit research and innovation network that provides solutions expertise, clinical insights, and advanced technology support to drive health equity.

Jennifer has extensive experience creating innovative and sustainable solutions to the complex external challenges facing providers in rural and medically underserved communities. She is a national leader and highly sought spokesperson in the areas of health system transformation and health care information technology. She leads OCHIN's advocacy, policy, development, and partnership teams who are experts in using data driven strategies to close gaps in care in local communities nationwide. Jennifer has established key partnerships and led advocacy efforts that have scaled critical initiatives for OCHIN network members and secured OCHIN as national leader supporting underserved communities across the nation. Previous to joining OCHIN, Jennifer spent more than 20 years in the pharmaceutical industry.

Jennifer holds degrees from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business and the University of Connecticut, and she currently serves on multiple state boards and national committees.